

The Book of Jonah – Chapter 3

1. God's power through Jonah (3:1-10)

A. The gracious Lord (3:1-2)

- i. God was displeased with his servant, but He never abandoned him.

B. The obedient servant (3:3-4)

C. The repentant people (3:5-9)

- i. However they heard, they turned to God so they would not perish.

D. God changing His mind (3:10)

- i. God deals with each of us according to the way we are currently living, particularly to the ways we change.

2. Some take aways:

- I. God's desire has always been a repented heart.
- II. God provides multiple second chances.
- III. God deals with his people according to the way we are currently living.
