October has arrived and so have the cooler temperatures and lower humidity!!
An important part in the life of every Christian is our study of God's Word. Let me encourage you to participate in one of our Sunday School classes here at church. We have classes for all age groups, nursery to senior adults. We meet at 9:45 every Sunday morning in different parts all through out our church.

I am continuing our study of the Baptist Faith and Message on Sunday evenings at six in the Sanctuary. This document was created in 1925 as a supplement for Southern Baptist Churches to help us understand in a concise manner some of the distinct and important topics of our faith. This document has been added to over the years. I will be taking each article of the Baptist Faith & Message and unpacking it as we walk through these 18 articles. Join us each Sunday at 6 p.m.

The last Sunday of this month is Halloween. We will be having a Fall Festival at our church that evening. We will begin at 5 p.m. with some special music. The music has not been finalized as of the time I am writing this article. After the music, we will hear a message by Daniel Ritchie. Daniel is from North Carolina and he was born with no arms. God has blessed him with the ability to do life without his arms and he gives God all glory. Daniel has an awesome testimony for the Lord. After we finish with our worship in the Sanctuary, we will go outside for an evening of food and fun. We will have plenty of pizza, cotton candy, popcorn and snow cones to eat, as well as inflatables to enjoy! Let's get the word out about our Fall Festival and invite all our friends and family to this wonderful event!

*God Bless,
Pastor Richard*

Question: Have you thought about what you want to ensure that your children and grandchildren inherit from you? Many of us want to pass on to our offspring homes, land and or liquid resources. When this is the case, we make sure we are good stewards of the resources to protect it for future generations and we take care of the legal requirements to ensure a smooth transition. But, there is another inheritance far more important than the aforementioned and it is one that every Christian, without exception, can leave to their loved ones. I have heard it said to not just leave something to your family but leave something in them! Leave an inheritance in them through example and prayer for a desire to love God more each year which will produce a growing faith in our LORD and greater obedience in serving Him. Paul taught us in Phillipians 1:9-11 to "... pray this: that your love will keep on growing in knowledge and every kind of discernment, so that you may approve things that are superior and may be pure and blameless in the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God". He also tells us in Phillipians 2:12 we "...must obey God with deep reverence and fear." Fear, as a holy respect for God, trembles at the thought of living a careless Christian life that slouches off in a casual compromise with the world, the flesh, and the devil. May our heart's desire be to leave a rich legacy of faithfulness to our LORD as an example that will create a hunger in the hearts of the next generations to follow and be spiritually fit to "contend for the faith".

Prayer Focus-All Missionaries: All missionaries need a vacation too. Ask God to provide a place of rest and renewal so their physical, emotional, and spiritual needs can be met. May they create some endearing family memories at this time. Some missionaries have sent their children off to college in the USA recently. Ask God to provide smooth adjustments for parents and children. Pray these young people would be firm in their faith and make good decisions. Ask God to gift them with friends.

True Victory

This is the victory that has overcome the world--our faith. 1 John 5:4

When life sends us reeling in pain and confusion, our response to our struggles will reveal how mature we are in our relationship with Christ. Of course what He desires to see is our unshakable trust in Him, regardless of what happens. That is the measure of true victory – our unwavering faith. We realize that as children of our sovereign God we are never victims of our circumstances. He is in control and will ultimately use whatever touches our lives for our good and His glory.

Friend, don't allow the storms in your life to discourage you; rather, cling to the Lord and invite Him to fill you with His strength and hope. Hold tightly to Him and to the promises He's given you – no matter what the cost or how circumstances appear. Have faith to the end. Because you know that with God, you'll be able to endure anything that comes your way in life and emerge triumphant.

In His presence...anticipate true and lasting victory.
