SEPTEMBER 2021

Here we are...another church year beginning! I want to say thank you to those who have volunteered to head up one of our ministries, to be a part of a committee, or to teach in a Sunday School class.

COVID-19 is still affecting the way we can gather and minister, but we are and must continue to move forward as smartly as we can.

Our sports ministry is starting up again. We will bring the softball and the football team to our church several times this month and share with them the Gospel of Jesus Christ; as well, as provide them a meal. If you would like to help in this ministry, please contact Billy and he will get you signed up!

On Saturday, September 11, starting at 6 p.m., I will be hosting a volunteer ministry appreciation dinner. This is a way for me, as your pastor, to tangibly say thank you for your faithfulness and dedication to God's church. I have sent out invitations to our many volunteers here at our church, if you did not receive one, please let me know. If you are able to attend, please RSVP to the church by Wednesday, September 1st. I pray that all will be able to attend this appreciation banquet.

God Bless,

Pastor Richard

As parents and grandparents we help teach our children to walk, talk, and grow. When they reach school age, we send them to school helping them with homework and however we need to assist and encourage them to do well in school and get a good education as we consider this very important to having a good and productive life not only for each person but also for our society. Yet, there is another instruction for a better education that is even more vitally important for each person to have for the best life possible and to ensure that our children nor we miss out on on all that God intends for us to be. That instruction is from the Bible. It is God's manual for rearing children and living the life He intends for us to have plus our instruction book for living to glorify God. So, let's look at Psalm 78: "O my people, hear my teaching; listen to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth, ... what we have heard and known, what our fathers have told us, We will not hide them from their children; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done. He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children, so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children. Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds but would keep his commands. They would not be like their forefathers-a stubborn and rebellious generation whose hearts were not faithful to him." How must our heavenly Father feel when we don't listen to His instruction manual, then suffer the consequences and complain? Getting away in the quiet and talking to our Heavenly Father who has called us by name is a valuable gift. Why do we avoid or ignore it and miss some of the best blessings He has in store for us? Let's pray this: Father, please put a hunger and thirst in me to know Your Word. Guide me to find truth and joy as I read and study the Scripture so that I will be spiritually fit to "contend for the faith " (Jude 3) and pass it on to the next generations so that our children and grandchildren will not miss out on any blessings God has in store for those obedient to His Word. In Christ's Service, Sibbie

Men's Ministry

We hosted the Associational meeting on August 2nd. we had a total of 40 men with 15 from RFBC. A delicious meal was served and thanks to all who helped prepare and especially to those who brought desserts. Thanks to Rev. Mike Gibbs for an inspiring message. The next meeting will be September 12.

Unshakable

I have set the Lord continually before me; because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken. Psalm 16:8-9

Have you ever wondered why Mary wasn't afraid to risk public shame to obey God? Or why the apostle Paul didn't abandon his faith as he experienced severe suffering? Or how David not only survived but thrived during the years King Saul persecuted him?

Through trials, difficulties, heartaches, and deep sorrows, men and women like Mary, Paul, and David learned the ways of God. They found that His love never changes and that He is completely trustworthy. His wonderful abiding presence kept them faithful even as the world fell apart around them.

Likewise, by learning His ways, you will have all you need to stand firm in your faith at every turn in life. When you understand – as they did – the power that's yours in Christ, you won't be so fearful. You'll realize that whatever comes your way first passes through the loving hands of your Savior. And His love, power, strength, and abiding care will strengthen your soul in times of great distress – regardless of what trials may come.

In His presence...you have is power to stand firm.
